Life Sciences Industry Practice at Sánchez Devanny provides legal advice to companies in these sectors:

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- » Acted as lead legal, regulatory and tax counsel for a German food company on its acquisition of a major Mexican food products manufacturer. We conducted the legal audit for the acquisition, which required extensive and detailed legal analysis regarding complex industrial processes, formulations, intellectual property and assets holding structure of the seller as well as the existing information technology platform. Our advice allowed us to optimize the efficiencies of the investment structure design, preparation and negotiation of the stock purchase agreement and all ancillary documents. In close collaboration with the company's internal tax team, we developed the leveraged financing structure to maximize returns and minimize the cross border tax burden of the transaction
- » Represented a German beverage company and acted as lead legal, regulatory and tax counsel on its acquisition of a Mexican wine and alcoholic beverages manufacturer. We conducted the legal audit for the acquisition, which required extensive and detailed analysis regarding heavily regulated industrial processes and formulations. Our advice allowed us to optimize the efficiencies of the investment structure design, preparation and negotiation of the stock purchase agreement and all ancillary documents.
- » Supported two clients in the pharmaceutical industry with anti-corruption and improper payment clauses included in their distribution, services, and supply agreements.
- » Represented the joint venture between an important European clinical research company and a Mexican counterpart on the structuring and development of a clinical research operation for LATAM based in Mexico, with operations extending to Brazil, Argentina and locally in Mexico.
- » Advised a US consumer products company in the Mexican portion of an international acquisition of a major animal food producer and distributor. This transaction included a due diligence process and review and drafting of documents. Our advice included structuring, contractual, corporate, tax planning, foreign trade, labor, compliance and regulatory matters.
- » Assisted in the design and execution of a compliance investigation for a client in the medical industry that led to the performance of a full assessment of its Mexico operations' labor practices.
- » Assisted a client in identifying distributors that have misused its registered trademarks to sell counterfeit medicines to the health sector in Mexico, and helped to design an effective legal strategy to stop infringement and the sale of counterfeit goods.
- » Advised a US based food products company regarding a commercial relationship with a Mexican entity. Our advice included determining the US Principal Party in Interest (USPPI), analyzing possible obligations arising from the relationship, establishing possible corrective measures to avoid contingencies, and implementing legal solutions in Mexico and the US.

- » Advised a client in the importation of raw materials, parts and components into Mexico for the manufacturing processes of cosmetic products. Counsel focused on the advantages of having manufacturing facilities and activities in Mexico for purposes of origin compliance for exports to NAFTA and other countries with free trade agreements in Latin America.
- » Secured a landmark ruling from Mexico's tax courts confirming the application of a 0% VAT rate on corporate services provided to a client's foreign affiliates. This reversed the previous understanding of the authorities, which was that a 16% rate was applicable. Through this ruling, the client will be able to recover corporate costs for services rendered by the head office to its multinational subsidiaries throughout Latin America, allowing it to reduce or eliminate withholding taxes in a number of Latin American jurisdictions and to reduce the allocable portion of its corporate costs.
- » Advised one of the major pharmaceutical products manufacturers in Mexico in connection with potential liabilities arising from the execution of Phase IV clinical trials in Mexico without the necessary authorizations by the competent authorities as well as the determination of the actual activities that may be considered as clinical trials subject to control by the competent authorities.
- » We acted as lead tax advisor for the 13.5 billion dollar corporate reorganization of this publicly traded Mexican multinational. The undertaking implied the tax-free reorganization of the company's beverage and snacks business into two separate sub-holdings and encompassed its subsidiaries in Argentina, Ecuador, Peru, Spain and the United States. In parallel, we acted as lead tax counsel for the 2.7 billion dollar acquisition of a U.S. bottling company by the bottling sub-holding company.
- » We are currently advising a multinational innovation-based company on litigation proceedings to enforce its intellectual property rights against generic drug competition.
- » Advised a drug manufacturers association with available alternatives to challenge determinations by regulatory authorities regarding criteria to approve advertising materials.

Who we are

Sánchez Devanny is a leading Mexican law firm that provides full-service legal advice both to Mexican and international clients.

More than attorney-client services

We build enduring client relationships that go beyond individual service contracts because we make every effort to understand our clients' businesses and expectations, to serve as an ally, and to provide complete, accessible and personalized advice. As a testament to these efforts, we continue to advise clients today who have trusted us with their legal matters since the firm was founded in 1996.

Experience and creativity

Throughout the firm, we take pride in serving our clients with a combined approach of experience and creativity because we recognize that when you know how things are done it is easier to think outside the box. Our partners offer a wealth of experience, including in prior roles as in-house counsels at global companies and government agencies, and key roles within international law firms.

With offices in Mexico City, Monterrey, and Querétaro, as well as several strategic alliances worldwide, the firm is well-positioned to quickly and efficiently represent and respond to clients' needs, shortening the distance between us and our clients. Our services are delivered in an efficient, professional, cost effective and timely manner, keeping always in mind that, as lawyers, we are business facilitators for our clients and must maintain a proactive and preventive approach.
